

Forcing wireless ISPs to pay USF fees would be an undue burden for my rural ISP. The only feasible broadband delivery system in our area is wirelss. Population is so thin that profit margins are currently non-existent. Additional taxes would likely force us out of business.